

Kashmir Earthquake
AIDMI Assessment Photos, October 16, 2005

A helpless victim who lost his shelter and all of his belongings.

Everything is destroyed, including the household items.

Community living in tents in a relief camp under very temporary protection.

Kilometres of community access are badly damaged and the government is rapidly responding to repair them.

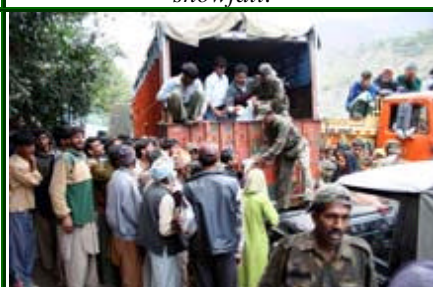

A victim trying to join some wooden poles with a hope to prop up a temporary and safe place before snowfall.

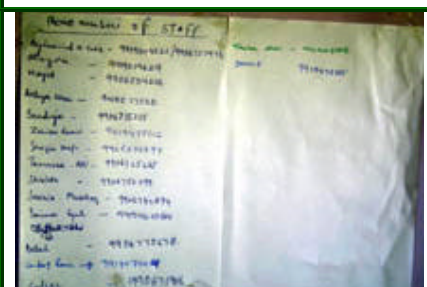

Milk bags being distributed to the community by a local NGO with the help of the Army.

Badly damaged shelters are dotted everywhere.

Jikeshbhai of AIDMI distributing biscuit packets to communities of Jula, Dardkot and Kalgai villages of Baramulla district in Kashmir.

AIDMI team visited the government office to collect local contacts.

Nasimbanu gave birth to a baby girl within 10 hours of the earthquake in her home without a roof during a cold night.

Jikeshbhai of AIDMI carrying out damage assessment in an earthquake affected village in the Baramulla district of Kashmir.

Earthquake devastation leaves not only humans destitute, but livestock also.